

NATALIE SHEARY | LEAD INSTRUCTOR

Natalie is a ten year LPGA/Symetra Tour Veteran from Hartford, CT. A graduate from both IMG Academies and Wake Forest University, she is an accomplished player on all levels.

While in college she was a multiple individual tournament champion and was awarded 2008 ACC Rookie of the Year, 2009 ACC player of the Year and 2011 ACC Scholar Athlete of the Year. Natalie studied Religion, Sociology and American Ethnic Studies.

She has recorded one Tour win and countless top 5 and 10 placements in her decade on Tour. Natalie's extensive playing career at the most elite level provides her with knowledge of the golf swing, course management, the process of training properly and the mentality required to grow as a player and person.

She is also a registered Tour and Club caddy. Being on the "other side of the bag" for the last 7 off seasons has provided Natalie with on course experience guiding both Professionals and Amateurs to their own personal excellence.
